

"C" The Difference

Get the facts about the
NEW hepatitis C treatment

Myth

You can only get treated for hepatitis C once

You have to stop using drugs to get treated for hepatitis C

You have to give yourself injections that will make you very sick

Hepatitis C treatment takes a long time and isn't very effective

Treatment is only available from specialist health services

Fact

If you get hepatitis C again, you can get treatment again

You can be treated for hepatitis C if you are currently using drugs

The new treatment is only 1 or 3 tablets per day and most people have very few side effects

The new treatment generally takes only 8-12 weeks and over 95% of people are cured

Treatment is available from GPs, sexual health clinics, Aboriginal health services, and youth health services

Find out more! Hepatitis C Infoline: 1800 437 222